

Commemorative books to celebrate milestones and achievements...

Memorial books to remember loved ones who are gone...

The perfect way to celebrate a person's achievements and milestones during life's journey or to remember a person after he or she has gone is to ask the library to purchase a book in their honor.

The library will purchase a book (or audiobook or DVD) in a subject area or genre that you believe is most fitting for the honoree. We then create a bookplate commemorating the person you wish to honor and place it in the book we have purchased. The book is placed on the shelf for the person or their family and friends to see. Every time the book is checked out, people will know that the book honors someone special.

And when you place a gift book in the library, you not only honor a special person, you also benefit the library and the entire community. This is truly a gift that keeps on giving.

Fill in the form below and mail it, along with a check (minimum of $25), to Middletown Public Library, 20 N. Catherine St., Middletown, PA 17057. Call 944-6412 for more information.
